SUMMIT.

Summit, Utah, July 12, 1905.

All the hedges are white with dust,
And the great dog under the creaking wain

Hangs his head in the lazy heat,
While onward the horses toil and strain.

—Longfellow.

Mr. John Farrow is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Fox of Frisco.

Mrs. Thruie Dalley has been ill and suffering much pain the last three days.

Miss Dealie Lowe of Parowan has been visiting her friend Miss Sadie P. Hulet.

Mrs. Fred Dalley and daughter intend leaving in the morning for their home in Provo.

Mrs. Philip Dalley and family arrived here on Friday from Preston, Idaho. They intend visiting friends and relatives here during the next two months.

We greatly enjoyed the talk on Sunday afternoon by Bro. John Urie of Hamilton's Fort, who was here in the capacity of home missionary. Bro. Urie has passed the allotted time of man and yet he braved the heat and discomfort of an eighteen miles ride to perform his duty. Would that more of us had the love of the gospel and sense of duty so firmly implanted in our hearts.

At the annual school election on Monday Chas. R. Dalley was re-elected for the long term and the amount of $52 was awarded the trustees as compensation for services rendered. We think it a pity these elections are not better attended. Every taxpayer should be present. One would think they would have interest enough to at least wish to vote for the trustees, also to know if they were using the public money judiciously.

Great fears are entertained that unless we have a good rain shortly the second crop of hay will be conspicuous for its absence. Grain will be light owing to chinch bugs and drought.

A few of our citizen visited the experiment farm last week. They greatly admired the grasses, especially the Bromus Inermis, which is standing the drought well. It is needless to state that the farm is suffering greatly for want of rain.

If June is the ideal month for marriages, July must be the month for births, for there have been three or four birthdays this week. The most pleasant we have been to for some time was the surprise given by the Relief Society to Sister Lettie B. Dalley last Friday, it being the occasion of her 70th birthday. Sister Dalley had been president of the Relief Society for over 20 years and only resigned some eighteen months ago, on account of severe sickness in her family. There was a good turnout of the society, for all love to honor old age, especially one who has done so much for the good of humanity as Sister Dalley. The afternoon was spent in conversation and listening to the thrilling experiences given by three pioneer sisters—Lettie B. Dalley, Thruie Dalley and Mary Allan. The latter was one who came across the plains in the disastrous handcart company. In the evening a dainty repast, consisting of chocolate, fried chicken, sandwiches, etc., ice cream and cake was served under the trees, and thanks are due to the Misses Amy, Ada and Lucy Dalley, and Sadie Hulet, who waited so gracefully on the table and anticipated the wants of their older sisters, which made the surprise a complete success. It was rather amusing to notice the brethren—our "lords of creation"—who passed by on their loads of sweet scented hay, and who were too proud or dignified to turn their heads in the direction of their meeker better halves, who were hugely enjoying the lawn party. Among the presents received by Sister Dalley were a pair of pillow slips, with wide crocheted lace, a sofa pillow cushion cover, silk handkerchief, a dolly, colored and white aprons.

LA VERKIN, UTAH.

La Verkin, Utah, July 9, 1905.

The grain is all harvested; some of the latest being seriously injured by the Chintz bug.

Wm Hardy and wife have taken their baby to St. George to be treated by Dr. Woodbury. Spinal trouble is thought to be the complaint.

Bishop Wilson has taken his wife to Cedar to be treated by Dr. Middleton. Her health has been poor for some time, but an improvement is hoped for.

Independence Day was celebrated here this year for the first time. Although the hour of preparation was late, the zeal that the women of La Verkin possess pushed things to a success. Our new flag waved in the breeze and a mighty commotion was heard. A float, trimmed with green (an emblem of growth) and drawn by horses, spirited to the occasion, that fairly stepped to the music, paraded the streets. All races were represented, white, black, red and yellow. H. Pickett, a natural mimic of the black race, made merriment for the young ones, while the Indian maiden led in the patriotic songs and a good time was enjoyed. Mr. Ciko, though not very familiar with his mustache, showed the glory in his eyes that now exists in his country.

In the afternoon children hopped with glee, and later tested their physical endurance and speed. When darkness appeared roman candles and sky rockets burned their way through the air till some of their burning cinders fell on the reserved force; then it was hard to tell whether the masters were on legs or wings.

Tired Nervous

When you feel languid, tired, nervous and irritable, your vitality is low—your supply of nerve energy exhausted, and your system running down for lack of power.

The organs of the body are working poorly, or not at all, and you are not getting the nourishment needed. This soon impoverishes the blood and instead of throwing off the impurities, distributes it all through the body. This brings disease and misery.

Feed the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine, a nerve food, a nerve medicine, that nourishes and strengthens the nerves, and see how quickly you will get strong and vigorous.

"My wife suffered with nervousness previous to a recent attack of typhoid fever, but after her recovery from the fever, she was much worse, and could hardly control herself being exceedingly nervous when the least excited. She was very restless at night, and never had a good night's rest. She also suffered much from nervous headache. Dr. Miles' Nervine was recommended by a friend. After the first three doses she had a good night's rest, and at the end of the first week's treatment she was wonderfully improved. Continued use of Nervine has completed her entire cure."
